

K-LOVE serves me as a resident of this community by providing uplifting and encouraging programming to help me through the day. The local community would be affected by having positive programming to listen to if K-LOVE were off the air. K-LOVE's service is in the public's interest by offering comment lines, pastors on staff to counsel and pray, and by offering quality, tasteful, and clean programming.